Discussing plans are, left to right, Hoseman George Biasotti, Assistant Chief Allen Winsor, in charge of the drive in the Orinda area, and Capt. Jack Kiely. The firemen distributed canisters and placards to business places here. A highlight of the campaign will be the March for Muscular Dystrophy November 18, 19 and 20, when volunteers will ring doorbells and ask for contributions. If you can help in the door-to-door march, contact the fire department.

Orinda Ass'n Seeks Members; Election is Soon

A total of 3500 membership and dues blanks were mailed this week by the Orinda Association. Recipients were reminded that their replies will make them eligible to vote for new directors later this month, and take part in guidance of affairs.

Claire Ward, association secretary, said that the mailing system was substituted for the old door-to-door campaign to save time, and that phone solicitation will be directed towards those who don't respond.

How the drive is going will be discussed by directors at a meeting Monday night in the Orinda School.

On November 18, the Association Civic Affairs Committee will nominate candidates to take the six directorships to be vacated.

Retiring directors are Gene Estes, current president; Marvin Baker, treasurer; Bob Walpole, Holland DuBois and Mrs. Ward. Director Mrs. Douglas Adie is moving from the area.

Directors continuing in office are Ted Twining, Arthur Flint and Norman Cunningham.

The form mailed out said in part: "Orinda may incorporate in 1958. The association as the overall homeowners' organization will continue many of its community services — study groups on community development, youth recreations, etc."

"If the people of Orinda decide against incorporation, the role of the association will grow in responsibility and importance."

"In either case, it is vital that the Orinda Association represent the whole community — this can truly be done only if every resident is a member."

Residents Hear Political Whisper as Elections Near

With the announcement by Governor Goodwin J. Knight that he will not seek reelection as governor making way for Senator William F. Knowland, local politics brightened up with prospective candidates for the assembly seats making statements.

Listed as possible candidates to seek assemblyman Donald D. Doyle's seat in the 10th District are George Krueger, mayor of Concord; Frank Hanrahan, active in water problems and democratic action in Contra Costa; Joseph Longacre, young Orinda attorney and popular republican; David Bortin, Concord attorney and democrat; Craig Randall, active in water problems of the central county and attorney; and John Nejedly, Walnut Creek city attorney.

NOT ONLY has Tom Coll, Concord councilman, attorney and long time democrat, been listed as a possible candidate for the supervisorial election in 1958 for Contra Costa but, as a likely candidate of the democrats to run against John Baldwin for the sixth congressional seat.

Whether Doyle's chances of becoming the state chairman of the Republican Party were dead in light of Knight's action, (Doyle, as state vice chairman of the Republican Party, favored Knight to run unopposed by any other Republican in the primary next June) were not known as The Sun went to press.

If Doyle would run again for the assembly post was not determined either. Most rumored candidates commented that it was far too early to make any mention of their intentions. But would wait to see what support, if any, they would receive by mention of their names in the press.

RUMORS THAT both parties would hold screening sessions were denied by high ranking Chamber Hears of Safety Problem on San Pablo Rd.

Safety problems brought about by the completion of the San Pablo Dam Road project were discussed at the Tuesday noon meeting of the Orinda Chamber of Commerce at Casa Orinda.

John Ogden, chamber member, pointed out that there has been a notable speedup of cars on San Pablo Dam Road and in the mornings with children waiting on corners for buses and boarding buses there has been a safety problem created.

CLARENCE BETZ, chamber secretary, was instructed by Bob Gemetti, who presided in the absence of chamber president Maynard Buehler, to write a letter to the proper county authorities informing them of the traffic speed up on San Pablo Dam Road.

The Orinda Garden Club suggested that floodlights be used this year to illuminate the Christmas Tree at Bryant Way and Moraga Highway rather than to string lights as was done last year.

The Garden Club also offered to decorate the tree. Ogden, who is Christmas Decorations Chairman, noted the chamber would call for bids on flood lamps for the Christmas tree lighting.

CHAMBER MEMBERS were notified that the Glorietta Improvement Assn. is conducting a Christmas Decorations Contest and the most beautifully decorated home will receive a $25 Savings Bond. Chamber members were asked by Art Flint of the improvement association to donate prizes toward the contest.

Jim Dana of the Orinda Junior Chamber of Commerce asked in a letter that nominations be submitted to the Junior Chamber for the selection of an Orinda Young Man of the Year.

In other business, the Orinda

Chamber heard a complaint from Ernest Poll that the parking time limits were not being enforced. Horace Breed of the Orinda Parking Authority suggested that such complaints be presented directly to the parking authority and that he would check into the matter with the proper county officials.

POSSIBLE LOCATIONS for Welcome Signs to Orinda were suggested by Ramsey Underwood. He stated that there weren't any sites available on the eastern approach to Orinda but there are two possible locations on the westerly approach. One is located near a clump of trees just west of the interchange by Oak Springs and the other is the Pacific Gas and Electric property west of the off ramp to Orinda. John Black of PG&E stated he would check to see if the company still owns the proposed site.

Jim Lucas of the Orinda Junior Chamber of Commerce informed the chamber that the Jaycees are interested in decorating the bus shelter for Christmas. A letter will be sent to Lucas by the board of directors informing the junior chamber of the board's decision on the matter.

Pledges to Church Total $129,000

Friends and members of the Orinda Community Church pledged $129,913, about one third of the amount needed to construct a new sanctuary and a new educational building, Sunday.

The total needed is $325,000 to $350,000, according to estimates made earlier by campaign chairman Del Kay, Skip Hoyt, Paul Winquist and Charles Nelson.

The pledges were received at a "kickoff" dinner held on Sunday at the Fellowship Hall.

A newsletter sent by the church said in part:

"Now we are making pledges to build him a House! Everyone is asked to make a pledge. Each will pledge his own way."

Some few are excusing themselves from this responsibility. It is all up to each of us. Only remember that the Master is watching us in relation to His Treasury now just as he was watching them in Jerusalem.

"Let us pledge therefore not to please the Pastor, the Visitor, or the Joneses, but let us pledge to please Him."

Youthful Stamp Fans Invited To Join Club

Young philatelists, those who are already stamp collectors or who would like to start the hobby, are invited to join the Orinda Stamp Club sessions now being conducted by Bradshaw Harrison at the Orinda Park Scout Hut from 10 a.m. until noon on Saturdays.

Cubs, Boy Scouts, Brownies and Girl Scouts can earn their merit badges here in interesting, informative meetings, with the added incentive of sharing their hobby and swapping stamps with other fans.

Harrison, who inherited his fine collection from his father in 1961, keeps on hand a stamp box from which new members may draw free stamps. On award of Merit Badge, scouts are gifted with some of his special stamps dating back to 1840-41.

Harrison, who settled in Orinda on Via Florencia some 22 years ago, and has done creditable work with the Boys Club in Sacramento, said the Orinda Stamp Club, open to everyone, is now affiliated with national philatelic societies, from which it receives stamps and is also a member of the Berkeley Philatelic group.

Incorporation Battle Intensifies

Group Steps Up Protest Effort Against 'City'

Under way this week was a stepped-up effort to get Orinda property owners to file formal protests against proposed incorporation of Orinda.

The Orinda Property Owners' Group was mailing to all Orinda property owners — resident and non-resident — card-forms for protests, Horace Breed, a member of the group, said.

Breed described this activity at the Orinda Chamber of Commerce meeting at Casa Orinda Tuesday noon and again later in the week.

"BOTH HUSBAND and wife should sign the protest form," Breed emphasized. "Otherwise only half the assessed valuation of the land, unimproved, will be tabulated when the form is processed by the assessor's office."

The same point was stressed by Clarence Betz, who said that as an individual property owner and resident of Orinda, and not in any organization or group capacity, he would be glad to assist persons wishing to protest or to seek exclusion.

Betz said he has a supply of the necessary forms at his office in the Dykes Building at 61 Moraga Highway, Orinda.

BREED SAID there are "several hundred" local property owners in the Orinda Property Owners' Group, but that the group has no officers.

He stated that the group is having a detailed report prepared by the research firm of Hocking, Rimov, Raeburn and Associates, Oakland, and that this detailed report is expected to be ready by the end of next week.

A 12-page preliminary report by the Raeburn firm was presented to the County Board of Supervisors by Attorney Dana Murdoch at the October 31 Orinda incorporation hearing in Martinez.

In its introductory remarks, this preliminary report stated:

"FORMAL OBJECTION to the incorporation of Orinda is presented on the basis that insufficient study has been made of this problem to present the true facts to those who as property owners in the Orinda area are deeply interested in it."

"If Orinda were presently being subjected to pressures from adjoining communities whereby an annexation problem would result, we would not feel that many of these objections which we intend to raise could be given the weight to which they are entitled. However, since no annexation problem exists, time would well be taken to make a comprehensive study of the entire community and its contiguous areas."

"It is not our purpose to state that incorporation is advantageous or disadvantageous to those people who reside in the proposed Orinda community. We do state that the evidence produced to date is incomplete."

"We further state that a line of demarcation must be drawn between what is known as a 'static' study and a 'dynamic' study."

"WE PROPOSE that a dynamic study be made, one which not only shows the probable income and expenditures for the first year following incorporation but recognizes the changes and problems that will occur in a period beyond that first year for us as five and ten years in advance. Only in such a study can the true meaning of incorporation as it affects the taxpayer be developed so that it will show:

"1. The type and quality of services to be rendered.

"2. The problems of overlapping political jurisdictions.

"3. The effect of plans and programs of adjacent communities upon the proposed community."

"4. The requirements for capital expenditures which would result in increased taxes, bonded debts or special assessment districts."

"5. It's proper economic and geographical relation to the adjoining area."

"6. The prospects for providing better services at less expense within a larger area."

"7. The long range effect of incorporating a city with a very narrow tax base."

Postal Job Is Available

Laura Mallory, Orinda postmaster, announced that applications are being received from local residents of Orinda and Lafayette to fill a clerk-carrier vacancy.

The pay is $1.82 per hour, with sick leave and vacation leave benefits. Veterans will be given preference.

PRELIMINARY ARCHITECTS' SKETCH of proposed Orinda Library was released this week by the Orinda Library Board through its building committee. The proposed new library is to be built from funds in process of being raised by local subscriptions. Plans are for the new building to be on a 1½-acre site at Irwin Way and Orinda Highway. The architects are Aitken and Collin of Berkeley.

More Protests Filed; Hearing Will Be Nov. 21

With the third hearing session on proposed incorporation of Orinda scheduled for 9 a.m. November 21, proponents and opponents intensified their efforts this week. The November 21 hearing session will be before the County Board of Supervisors in Martinez.

Formal protests to the incorporation proposal were pouring into the Board of Supervisors' office and were being checked by the county assessor's office.

If such protests represent 51 per cent or more of the assessed valuation of the land, unimproved, in the area proposed for incorporation, the supervisors cannot schedule an election on incorporation.

DEPUTY COUNTY Assessor Jerry Tara reported Wednesday afternoon that the protests his office had checked up to that time represented about $500,000 in assessed valuation of the land, unimproved.

This, according to Tara, was about one-sixth of the estimated total land valuation of nearly $3 million. Tara said that in order to reach the 51 per cent figure, about $1,500,000 in assessed valuation of land would have to be represented.

The supervisory hearing was continued to November 21 by the county board last week. Assistant District Attorney Thomas McBride explained that the Board of Supervisors has a period of 60 days from the date of the first hearing session, October 15, to consider protests and that, therefore, protests can be filed until the date of the board's final hearing session, which may be as late as mid-December, he said.

FOLLOWING the October 31 hearing session, Ernest Spiegel, general chairman of the incorporation committee, charged that "a well financed attempt to block an incorporation election is under way" and predicted that "this effort to prevent the vote cannot succeed."

This week Horace Breed, a member of the Orinda Property Owners' Group, declared: "I believe Spiegel has gotten the wrong slant on this because, instead of trying to delay, what the Orinda Property Owners' Group is trying to do is to give the Orinda property owners a chance to express themselves, since there are a considerable number of home owners in Orinda who want to protest."

IN THAT CONNECTION, the Orinda Property Owners' Group in sending protest-form cards to all Orinda property owners, Breed said. He stressed that both man and wife should sign the protest forms, since otherwise only half of the assessed valuation of the land would be tabulated.

Linsey Spight, acting chairman of the Citizens Research Committee on Orinda Incorporation — which includes proponents and opponents of incorporation — said yesterday that the next work-conference of his group will be held sometime after the November 21 supervisory hearing session.

"Problems in Group Dynamics" is the subject chosen by Dr. Richard R. Lininger, Orinda psychiatrist, for his talk to Orinda Nursery School Association members at their next meeting. It will be held Thursday at 8 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall at Orinda Community Church.

'129 Teachers May Be Needed By 1961-62'

The Orinda School District will probably need 129 teachers by the 1961-62 school year, the Stanford Associates informed the Orinda School Board Monday night.

Dr. Glenn Nimnicht and Dr. W. R. Odell of the research group appeared before the trustees at their regular monthly meeting at Pine Grove School and presented a projection of the financial needs of the district through 1962.

They stressed that their projection was based on the assumption that the district's "present policies, educational or otherwise," will continue for the next five years.

THE RESEARCHERS predicted that under those circumstances the number of teachers required by the district would probably jump from 91 this year to 99 in 1958-59, 109 in 1959-60 and 129 in 1961-62.

Besides receipt of the report from Stanford Associates, board actions Monday night also included:

1. Request to the Acalanes Transportation Committee that it give serious consideration to the parents of some 22 children in Warford Mesa that a school bus stop be established at Warford Mesa. The committee was scheduled to meet last night.

2. Receipt of report by Superintendent Joseph L. Sheaff that district student enrollment as of October 28 totaled 2682—632 at Del Rey School, 421 at Glorietta, 497 at Orinda, 552 at Sleepy Hollow and 580 at Pine Grove.

3. INSTRUCTION TO Frank Isaac, district physical education and recreation director, to check with the Forestry Service of the Department of the Interior as to details involved in establishment of a permanent outdoor education school near Fallen Leaf Lake in the Lake Tahoe area.

(For the past three summers the Orinda School District has maintained such a school at Echo Lake; it is now attempting to obtain a 6-acre site near Fallen Leaf Lake. The Echo Lake outdoor school, at a 2-acre site, has been fifth grade and are about to enter for students who have completed sixth grade in the fall. If the Fallen Leaf Lake site is obtained, more grades will be included.)

(Isola explained that he has applied to the Forestry Service for a land use permit for the 6-acre site at Fallen Leaf Lake. He said that if the application is approved he hopes the camp-like outdoor school can be in operation there by the summer of 1959. He stated that he will report on the matter to the December 2 meeting of the Orinda School Board.)

4. AUTHORIZATION to Theodore Osmundson, landscape architect for the district, to proceed with preparation and seeding of the ground at the Pine Grove School playground, in order to correct a soil erosion condition there.

5. Signing of a resolution of acceptance of the deed to three acres of Dr. Miles Hudson property, for expansion of the Glorietta School site. Trustees explained that the transaction must still be approved by the state.

In the absence of Mrs. Catherine Schwabek, board president, who was ill, Clerk Karl E. Schevill acted as chairman of the board meeting.

McBride Speaks At Rotary Meet

Assistant District Attorney Thomas F. McBride discussed "Legal Aspects of County Administration" at the weekly luncheon meeting of the Orinda Rotary Club Wednesday at the Orinda Willows.

Clarence Betz was program chairman. President Robinson Smith conducted the meeting.

An organ benefit concert will be given in the Fellowship Hall of the Orinda Community Church on Friday, November 22, at 8:15 p.m. here will be a group of piano selections by Nancy Olsen, two groups of vocal numbers by Frances Groves and a group of songs by the Orinda Community Church Chorus.

Nancy Olsen, pianist, is a senior at the University of California. Her home is in San Francisco, where she studied with Evelyn Ramberg Olsson. For the past four years she has been studying with Miss Elizabeth Simpson in Berkeley.

Frances Groves, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Murray H. Groves of Orinda, attended Orinda and Acalanes High School. During her school days here, she studied with Hedwig Schnoor of Berkeley. She attended College of Pacific, where she was graduated with a teaching credential.

She has two years as a major imusic and is a member of MU Phi, an honorary music sorority. In New York she studied with Paul Althouse, where she was auditioned by Dr. Antonio Briceo, who took her to Munich, Germany, where she studied with Mme. Lukashik for two years.

She was given contract with the Heidelberg Opera Company, where she sang for two years. This was followed by a contract for the opera in Kiel, Germany. Frances returned to California last summer, was married to Edward Perry and is now living in Stockton.

MISS GROVES was one of the four West Coast singers to be chosen from 27 candidates in the American Opera Auditions.

Those selected go to Cincinnati in January, to study with Giulio Confaloniere, who is from the La Scala Opera in Italy. After three months' study, four or five of these singers will be chosen to go to Italy to study.

Miss Groves will be accompanied by her husband, who has his master's degree in Music from the College of Pacific. He has a teaching fellowship in mathematics at the college at present and is organist at the Central Methodist Church in Stockton.

THE ORINDA COMMUNITY Church Chorus of over 30 voices will be directed by Maurice Ellison and accompanied by Pat McGee.

Tickets for the concert are $1.50 for adults and 75 cents for students and may be obtained by calling Mrs. Arthur Weatherbe of 15 Daryl Drive, Orinda. $1006 FOR AFS
Hallowe'en is "trick or treat" for "pennies, nickels, and dimes" instead of "goodies." Members of the American Field Service Club went "all out" in a fund-raising drive October 31 for the AFS student exchange program.

At the end of the drive the grand total of $1006 was collected. Miramonte's busy student council is making big plans, including: a General Electric science assembly, a visit from a Marine Corps band, obtaining "classical" albums for dances, non movies and the annual Christmas Dance.

FUTURE TEACHERS

The Future Teachers' Organization, "just born," at Miramonte is trying hard to get speakers, such as exchange teachers to come and lecture here.

Matadors have a winning streak. The junior Friday batters Antioch JV, 13-6 on Friday, November 1, and the Frosh gave Acalanes "Frosh" the ax, 7-6 on Thursday, October 31.

Miramonte, Acalanes AFS Groups Collect for Fund

By Jeanne Hunnicutt, Acalanes Publicity Chairman
Acalanes and Miramonte American Field Service Clubs were thrilled with their "Change for Exchange" Hallowe'en Drive results. Acalanes students collected about $850 in Lafayette, while Miramonte got around $1,006 in Orinda.

Students were seen throughout Lafayette all evening, carrying collection cans, ringing doorbells, and explaining our high school exchange student program. The money given is enough to bring one exchange student from Europe to Acalanes next year. In fact, the amount gives the club a two-hundred-dollar start toward a second exchange student.

In the Lafayette Community Church, where the students reported with their money, enthusiastic comments were heard throughout the room. "Everyone is so friendly," people opened their doors and said they were so

Dr. Montgomery To Arrive Soon; Family Now Here

Dr. Earl C. Montgomery, an eye, ear, nose and throat specialist, will come to Orinda from Omaha early next month, to live here and practice here, his son said yesterday.

Mrs. Montgomery arrived here from Omaha a few weeks ago and moved into the home at 15 Brookside Road which she and her husband have purchased and which they will occupy. Temporarily sharing the home with her are their son, Earl C. Montgomery Jr., his wife and four young daughters.

Montgomery Jr., salesman with Orinda Village Realty, came here recently from Omaha, where he was manager of Dillon Realty Company. Only yesterday morning he met his wife and four daughters upon their arrival from Omaha, at San Francisco International Airport. The Montgomerys Jr. will remain as house guests at the Montgomerys Sr. residence until they find a home of their own in this community.

Meanwhile, Dr. Montgomery is living in his son's home in Orinda until he leaves for Orinda. After he gets settled here he will practice here, setting up his office in the new medical building which is nearing completion at Southwood Drive and Moraga Highway.

glad we had come to their house." One student said, "You know it's pretty swell to know that the adults are backing us in our world-student exchange program. We feel it is so important, and I see the rest of the community feels the same way."

The Acalanes AFS Club treasury now stands at $900. If your house was missed on Hallowe'en, the Club would appreciate any "Change for Exchange" that you might have. It can be mailed to Cathy Cutler, AFS Treasurer, in care of Acalanes High School, at 1200 Pleasant Hill Road, Lafayette, etc.

Youth Carries Bible; Tells Of Burglaries

Walnut Creek police were able to write "solved" over 10 local burglaries this week, when Bible-toting Harvey E. Brown, 20, Oakland, and his companion turned themselves in.

Brown and Bradley Mills, 19, of 251 Boyd Road, Pleasant Hill, admitted that they committed 38 burglaries in the Bay Area in recent months. Their confessor was Parole Officer Rudy Kuhn, whose job is to talk with young delinquents.

Brown is a parolee from the California Youth Authority. Holding the Bible, he said he was sorry for what happened, and that he needed money for food. He said that he is a hotel manager and machinist.

Mills gave his occupation as salesman and musician. Their burglaries at times netted several hundred dollars. Victims included the Walnut Creek Recreation Center and the Farmers Feed and Supply Company, several small stores, and the Pleasant Hill Recreation Center. The Walnut Creek Center yielded $400 from a safe, and the Farmers Company, $500.

40-Bed Private Hospital is Proposed

Dr. Samuel Levine of Hayward has filed an application with the county Planning Commission for re-zoning to allow construction of a 40-bed hospital in Alamo.

The land involved is seven acres on the west side of Highway 21, north of Alamo. The property now zoned for residential-agricultural uses, fronts for 230 feet on the highway, and is just south of Hillgrade Road.

Warehouse in Saranap Gets County Favor

The County Planning Commission last week recommended approval of a request for rezoning to business 65 hundredths of an acre for location of a new Bekins Van and Storage Company warehouse in Saranap.

The firm recently bought property on Mt. Diablo Boulevard between Holiday Lodge and the freeway by-pass from contractor John Osmundson.

Planned is a three-story warehouse and office. It will be just outside the Walnut Creek city limits.

General chairman of the event is A. W. Mohr of Diablo.

Braumoeller Plea Scheduled Next Friday in Court

Ludwig (Fred) Braumoeller, top ranking state narcotics officer, will make his plea of guilty or not guilty on charges of supplying heroin to a dope addict next Friday in the Superior Court of Judge George Harris in San Francisco.

Braumoeller, 38, of 56 Claremont Drive, Orinda, a top-ranking agent for the past 12 years, was indicted by the Federal Grand Jury in San Francisco on four counts of selling heroin to an Oakland addict.

Marked evidence, a portable TV set, an expensive sports coat with which federal authorities hope to convict suspended state narcotics agent Braumoeller were believed to be the items which brought about the federal grand jury indictment.

U.S. ATTORNEY Lloyd Burke in San Francisco said that U.S. agents recovered the articles which Braumoeller assertedly accepted from a known drug addict and "stool pigeon" in exchange for heroin.

Burke announced that the articles were recovered through a young narcotics offender whom Braumoeller befriended when he was convicted of selling marijuana in 1955.

Burke said the new witness confessed that he took the articles from Braumoeller's home after getting a phone call from the state agent.

BURKE insisted that the evidence "just about wraps up the case."

Walter Cheighton, chief of the Bay Area office of the State Narcotics Bureau, who has staunchly defended Braumoeller, said he had "new information" which came to him from an independent source which caused him "to alter opinions."

ATTORNEY GENERAL Edmund G. Pat Brown placed a gag on all state narcotics officers against making further statements about the Braumoeller case under the threat of disciplinary action.

Brown said that there will be changes in procedures in the State Narcotics Bureau dealing with the handling of confiscated narcotics and the availability of the drugs to agents.

Highland Realty Meets Highway--Moving Monday!

Monday will be moving day at Highland Realty Company, which met a freeway head-on and decided to vacate in favor of more accessible quarters.

The firm will occupy entirely new quarters at 1252 Civic Drive, Walnut Creek, according to Realtor and owner J. H. Nick Carter.

The office building is centrally located on the corner of Civic Drive and Arroyo Way, across the street from the Walnut Creek City Park, city hall, and new library, and only a block east of the Greyhound Bus station.

THE TELEPHONE number, YE 4-4406, will remain the same, however.

This is just another move that will expand Highland Realty Company in order to provide better service to its customers.

County Hits 58% for UC

Contra Costa County has reached 58.4 percent of its goal with gifts totaling $288,834, according to Henley V. Worthington of Concord, county campaign chairman.

West Contra Costa is leading with 63.3 percent and collections at $174,469; Central Contra Costa, 54 percent with $75,069.87; and East Contra Costa reporting 55.4 percent with $44,533.

In Central Contra Costa the Concord committee headed by attorney Tom Col already reached 72 percent of its goal with gift collections at $25,220.

At a meeting held in Antioch, Bob Myers, Industrial Division chairman reported that plans are nearing completion of their drives "with 90 percent and higher participation with increases in the individual employees' donations over last year's figures noted."

United Bay Area Crusade reports 61.5 percent of its goal reached with gifts totalling $7,234,795.

Alameda is leading in the five counties with 74.7 percent; San Mateo 58.6 percent; Contra Costa 58.4 percent; San Francisco 52.5 percent; and Marin 50.3 percent.

Sheriff Asks For Deputies Upon Return

Sheriff Harry A. Brown, back to work after a long illness, appeared before the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors Tuesday in Martinez and asked for four additional deputies to service the El Sobrante area of the county.

Brown said that his office is unable to give better protection because in the central and western portions of the county each patrol car is responsible for areas containing from 60,000 to 70,000 persons.

BROWN STATED that three and a half deputies can be released for patrol duties if all radio operations of the sheriff's office are maintained under one roof.

The sheriff has received two letters of complaint from the El Sobrante area concerning law enforcement there.

The Sheriff renewed his recommendations for the consolidation of the radio facilities in downtown Martinez.

CHAIRMAN of the Board Ray S. Taylor agreed with Brown on the consolidation of the facilities but, noted that the consolidated activity would be adjacent to the Juvenile Hall on Arnold Industrial Highway rather than in downtown Martinez.

Col. Ralph Holmes of the County Civil Defense Authority has opposed the shift of radio facilities to Martinez but, the board indicated that they would go along with Brown should the CD director withdraw his opposition.

Brown informed the board that his office was organizing a sheriff's reserve in El Sobrante and in North Richmond and that the units would help meet the crime problems of those areas.

Safeway Building Program Is Told

Quentin Reynolds, Walnut Creek resident and San Francisco Division Manager of Safeway Stores, yesterday disclosed that expenditures in 1957 and through 1958 for new stores, facilities and remodeling, all in the Northern California area will be in excess of $25 million.

In addition to the above-mentioned sum being spent for new stores and improvements, Reynolds said the company expects to accept the first two completed units of the multi-million dollar distribution center at Richmond before the end of this month.

The largest of the units, located on a 69 acre site, is the dry-grocery distribution building, containing eight acres under one roof and with a capacity for 560 carloads of foodstuff. With the other unit, a truck repair and servicing facility, these first elements of the center will be in full operation before the end of the year.

Commenting on construction carried out by his division this year, Reynolds said that a particularly satisfying fact in the program has been the creation of 456 new retail employee jobs.

Eleven new stores have been opened so far this year and seven more will be completed and turned over for operations before the end of December, according to Reynolds.

County Mayors Back Leash Laws for Dog Population

Mayors of Contra Costa cities voted in favor of a comprehensive dog control ordinance in which cities would join with the county in problems of enforcement at a October 31 meeting in San Pablo.

Robert Van Nord, assistant county administrator, outlined a proposed program and estimated the net cost at about $25,000 per year.

"THERE IS A dog population of approximately 50,000 in Contra Costa County and about 40 percent of these dogs are unclaimed," said Van Nord.

"The main problem lies in methods of coping with the unclaimed dogs," he continued.

The proposed measure would establish a basis for city-county control in two principal fields:

1. Establishing owner responsibility;
2. Providing for enforcement

Financial Master Plan Sought for Junior Colleges

Renewed interest in a financial master plan for Contra Costa Junior College District was expressed Tuesday by the County Taxpayers Association.

The group suggested 15 months ago that a committee be formed by District Superintendent Drummond McCunn for the purpose of studying and advising the implementation of such a master plan.

THE TAXPAYERS unit has already gone on record as favoring the district's "pay as you go" plan under which a maximum tax rate has been levied over the past 10 years in preference to a bond issue.

The association directors said that a committee might be helpful in formulating a long range program to keep building costs at a minimum.

Frank Cayting of Orinda, education committee chairman, said the group would like to be informed on what progress has been made on the appointment of the recommended committee or if this matter had been overlooked he wished to call the attention of the district to it again.

INVOLVED IS the financing of more than $15 million of Junior College construction in the next 15 years and even a larger sum if a third campus is established as is already favored by most of the district's trustees.

Major construction is planned for the east campus in Pleasant Hill in the near future.

Louis Stores to Star on KGO TV 'Success Story'

Northern California television viewers, at 6:30 Thursday night, will be taken on a tour of the Emeryville warehouse of Louis Stores, Inc.

From a small Grocery department within a large Oakland market, T. E. Louis, President of the firm, has established himself as a leader in super marketing during the past two decades.

"Success Story," sponsored by the Richmond Oil Corp., is shown on KGO-TV, Channel 7. The 30 minute Richmond production, designed to tell the story of the "free enterprises system in action" reportedly reaches a potential audience of well over a million people each week. It has been much commended for its unusual dramatic technique, and has won many television awards.

The show, according to the producers, will be a live, on-the-spot telecast which will cover as completely as possible, many facets of the Super Market Industry through Louis Stores' ultra modern facilities literally from "soup to nuts."

The story will feature the marketing and distribution of food from the grower to the consumer. The viewer will watch intricate tabulating methods of stock control all done by machinery. A "fortune" in Coffee along with rack after rack of finest foods from near and far.

All this neatly packed away in systematic order over an area as large as three football fields. Through the magic of electronics and thousands of dollars worth of television equipment the Louis Store will slowly become an actuality born first in the creative mind of Caryl Coleman, the recipient of many television awards, along with his assistant, Larry Russell.

This will be the first time that Success Story has featured a super market in Northern California and from all reports a most distinctively different type of presentation.

Supervisors Plan To Study Garbage Franchise Here

The Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors again reviewed the possibility of establishing ordinances for the franchised disposal of garbage by companies in the built up areas of the county.

The action was taken Tuesday by the Supervisors in Martinez as they reactivated a citizens committee headed by John Nejedly of Walnut Creek which turned in its final recommendation to the board approximately two years ago.

The action of the supervisors followed recommendations of the Pleasant Hill Improvement Association and other civic groups that the supervisors look into the garbage disposal situation in light of recent rate increases in the central county area.

No action was taken by the board on the original committee's report and the board indicated that with the formulation of the Bay Area Air Pollution Control District many of the committee's recommendations would need re-amping.

The board ordered the reactivation of the committee at the suggestion of Thomas McMorow, chief county sanitarian and Ernest Campell, manager of the Contra Costa County Mosquito Abatement District.

McMorow said disposal companies are agreeable to a franchise proposal which would give them exclusive rights to serve certain areas but would require them to guarantee service to all homes and to charge rates set by the supervisors after public hearings.

Bunce Receives Long Sentence On Two Counts

John H. Bunce Jr., 34, of Orinda, confessed stock swindler, was sentenced last Friday to a possible maximum 20 years in prison.

Alameda County Superior Judge S. Victor Wagler, in Oakland, rejected a plea for leniency by Bunce's attorney, Suren Toomajian, and imposed an 0.5 year sentence on one count of violating the Corporate Securities Law and a 1-15 year sentence on one count of grand theft.

The judge ordered that the sentences be served consecutively. Toomajian had requested that the defendant be allowed to serve the sentences concurrently.

A SPOKESMAN for the California Adult Authority, which fixes the maximum prison terms of offenders, stated that Bunce would probably be required to serve a maximum of 10 years, with about three years off for good behavior.

However, the spokesman added that Bunce could be required to serve the maximum sentence under both counts—a total of 20 years.

Bunce, whose home is at 14 Cascade Lane, Orinda, was a Navy bomber pilot, World War II.

Although Bunce pleaded guilty to only one count of selling stock without a license and one count of grand theft, Oakland Police Inspector Lester King had stated that he is believed to have swindled 59 investors out of nearly $500,000.

ALAMEDA COUNTY District Attorney Frank Coakley recommended that the sentences be served consecutively.

A probation report submitted to Judge Wagler and prepared by Deputy Probation Officer C. V. McCluskey estimated that 60 out of 81 clients who had invested money with Bunce incurred losses totaling $476,543.

The specific charges which had been filed against Bunce were by Arthur Johnson, Walnut Creek real estate man, who complained that Bunce had swindled him out of $200,000 he had given Bunce to invest.

THE PROBATION report stated that Bunce's troubles began with the failure of Channel Films Company, a television production firm he organized in 1952. He allegedly induced various persons to invest some $100,000 in the enterprise and borrowed $15,000 to invest for himself.

After that, according to the report, he established the Pacific States Securities Company, with headquarters in Oakland, and engaged in fictitious stock transactions.

TOMORROW IS THE DAY for the annual Delta Delta Delta alumnae party. It will be at the home of Mrs. Arthur Wagstaff of Newell Avenue, Walnut Creek. Boosters are, left to right, Mesdames Rees Paine, Sterling Smith and Rollin Moore, all of Orinda.

'Halloween Quiet' Says CC Sheriff

Halloween was pretty quiet in Contra Costa County with several exceptions of "water bombing," broken windows and car painting, according to the Contra Costa Sheriff's office.

Most youngsters were satisfied with just going on their trick or treating rounds and most teenagers participated in community parties.

A few teenagers gathered in the Danville area for a good old fashioned round of water bombing and rotten egg throwing, said Lt. Bob Fisher, sheriff's deputy.

Water bombing is the filling of paper bags with water and then throwing them at passing cars, pedestrians, buildings or whatever appears to be a good target.

Fisher pointed out that although he was generally pleased by the behavior of Contra Costa youngsters Halloween night those that threw objects at passing autos

Church Women's Luncheon Success

The luncheon served October 29 at the Orinda Willows by the ladies of the Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church is a happy memory to many.

The tables were set and arranged attractively. Mrs. Ione Babcock and her decorating committee had made individual place mats for each setting, using the theme "fall luncheon" with the autumn colors and leaves.

Favors for each lady complimented the settings. Each guest wore an appropriate name tag designed by Mrs. Norna Bowers in the shape of a painter's pallet, while Mrs. Mary Brazee added the touches of color with toothpicks colored in the fall theme. Many commented on the originality of these.

Comments such as "such good food" and "what an entertaining speaker John Wheatman was" were heard. Wheatman discussed "Decorating on a Budget".

Birthdays were celebrated by Mrs. A. S. Hidy, the pastor's wife, and Mrs. William Curtis, both of Orinda.

The Ground Cow New Restaurant, Will Open Soon

Expected to open by December 10 or 15 is The Ground Cow, a new restaurant, at 1 Moraga Highway, former location of the Orinda Pharmacy before the drug store moved to its new quarters.

The Ground Cow will be the fourth of the chain of restaurants by that name, operated by William E. Straus of 3688 Nordstrom Lane, Lafayette. The others are in Berkeley, Oakland and on Highway 40 near Auburn.

These restaurants specialize in broiled hamburgers and hot apple pie.

Straus originally started his firm 12 years ago with a restaurant in San Francisco but he sold that place in 1948.

THE MORAGA HIGHWAY spot is being completely remodeled and modernized. Straus plans to be open from breakfast-time to midnight, seven days a week.

The new restaurant, like the other Ground Cows, will serve patrons at the counter. Ice cream will be sold for take-home purchases as well as for counter-service.

We Can Learn Lessons From Recorder Fiasco

Now that the county recorder has simmered down, and the situation is "settled," it might be a good idea to look at the whole picture and see what can be learned.

A superior court jury found ex-recorder Cunningham guilty on two counts of a grand jury accusation which was filed last April.

As a result of these findings, Cunningham was immediately "relieved" of his duties, and his salary of $10,200 per year stopped.

Essentially, this is the only punishment that was given, because Cunningham is still eligible for retirement pay of nearly $500 per month.

DUE TO THE MANNER in which the charges were brought by the grand jury, no criminal charges could be brought against Cunningham. But the effect was to remove from office a man who has been serving in county government since 1934—and has been re-elected each time he ran—which has been every time.

But this action does show what a grand jury can do towards seeing that we have clean, honest county government—something that we badly need if we ever have any hopes of cutting our tax bills down to size.

Credit must be given to last year's grand jury for tackling the problem... one which must have been obvious to county circles in Martinez because it had been going on for years.

But there is more than this to the story.

It seems fairly obvious that there was criminal action going on in the recorder's office. Money was being pilfered, and one man was allowed to resign because he had allegedly stolen county funds.

THE ONLY MISSING money that was actually tracked down amounted to about $5, but it could certainly have been a great deal more than this over the long period of time that he served in office.

The point is that a grand jury—the 1956-57 grand jury—got around to doing a job.

Now, why can't the district attorney and the board of supervisors do a job too?

Certainly the board of supervisors could have asked the district attorney for action regarding the criminal activities in this office. It seems unlikely that we will really have good, clean, honest government until the board of supervisors is strong enough, and willing enough, to work actively at cleaning up some of these situations.

THE WORST PART of this is the bad example that is being set for other county offices. Here are cases of actual criminal activity, but there is no punishment.

Are county workers, and taxpayers too, to assume that those in power in the county government just don't care?

Are they to assume that if a grand jury gets active enough, and works hard enough with little cooperation from the district attorney's office, and gives publicity enough to some of the serious problems in our county government, then the board of supervisors will finally "take action"?

OUR COUNTY government is big business, and we are paying the money that keeps it going. Certainly we have the right to demand that it be clean, honest, and cost us as little as possible.

The recorder fiasco has demonstrated that it is not necessarily this way, and we must have assurance that the board of supervisors is going to administer the kind of government we are paying for, and that we demand.

How about it?

WITHOUT THE help of the county employees, who are responsible for the actual legwork of tracking down information, looking up ordinances, and a thousand other deals, from the correct spelling of a name to a plot location, very little correct information would ever get into a newspaper.

Perhaps in the upper ranks of any government there is buck passing and the old pitch of "no comment." Yet, the people who just work for a living are more than happy to help out in any way they can.

THE QUESTIONS the reporter asks are usually extra-curricular for the employees of the county.

He's already got a stack of paper work on the desk and a heavy work load. But never has anyone said: "I'm too busy to give the information"; or "Look it up for yourself."

If one department doesn't have the information the person on the other end of the line has made it a point to find out what department is responsible and transfer the call to the proper person in the other department.

Not only are the employees more than willing to help out but, so are many of the elected county officials and appointed department heads.

One elected official gave The Sun seven different telephone numbers where he could be reached night or day and in all cases if we couldn't get him he always got ahold of us.

Complain all you will about the county government and its operations, this is a healthy attitude and one that keeps the county on its toes but, if it comes to getting information concerning any given subject in the county government you'd have to go a long way to get as much cooperation and factual information as Contra Costa's civil employees are more than happy to give.

Some Real Laughs for Area Payers of Real Gone Taxes

By PAT PENDING

The following you are about to read is true. Names will be changed to protect the innocent.

This column should probably be saved until April 15, 1958 — when income tax payers will really be in the need of laughs!

But knowing my readers (both of them) are interested in humor, I want to acquaint them with the most hysterically ridiculous phenomenon of today: the banking system!

IT ALL BEGAN when this infant Republic was struggling to obtain its freedom from Uncle George the Third. During that period one, Meyer Amschel of Frankfurt-on-the-Main in Germany, kindly recruited approximately 16,800 Hessian mercenaries from the Landgrave of Hesse Cassel, at Hanau — near Frankfurt.

George III paid $1,200 per head ($20,000,000) to the Landgrave for these troops because he had been unable to secure sufficient British soldiers to fight his cousins across the Atlantic. The Landgrave then lent this $20,000,000 to aforementioned Meyer Amschel for ten years at a low rate of interest. You'd never guess how it was then used!

Meyer Amschel transferred this fund to Haym Solamon (an American "patriot" who "gave all that he had to the Revolution" and still remained the richest man in the country!) That is real genius! Solamon lent Uncle George's $20,000,000 to Robert Morris to help finance the War for Independence against England. Do you now see the humor of the situation?

OH, BY THE WAY! Meyer Amschel is better known as Rothschild (a name assumed because of the Red Shield that hung in front of Meyer's shop in Frankfurt-on-the-Main).

Anyway, George III paid for the American Revolution and the international financiers played both ends against the middle; no matter who lost, they won, and lives were sacrificed on both sides.

A note in passing —

A Red Shield was fomenting international trouble then and a Red Star is menacing the freedom of all men today. Another satellite, "Dognik," is circling the earth. I think it time we analyze how things got this way!

The reason the American Colonists revolted was not because of the Stamp Act of March 22, 1765. This was taxation without representation. The Colonists could have borne this with but loss of dignity. But the Act demanded that stamps be paid for in specie (coins obtained by trade with other nations) which they did not have because of an embargo laid upon their commerce with any nation save England.

The trap was set so that the Colonists would have to borrow from the Bank "of England" it's created credit at interest. This they would not do and the stage was set for the Revolutionary War. Space will not permit further humor in this issue but stay tuned next week as I reveal a set-up even the California Water Company envies!

Shirley Matson On Style Board

Acalanes senior Shirley Matson has been awarded a position on a National Teenage Fashion Board.

Shirley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Matson of 1135 El Camino Vallecito, Lafayette, was chosen to represent the Acalanes High School District's feminine enrollment on teenage fashion views.

Miss Matson is a Home Economics major and expects to further her studies in homemaking at the University of California at Davis after her graduation from Acalanes.

As an undergraduate at the Lafayette high school, Shirley has taken courses in sewing, cooking and general homemaking and she says, "Among other things, I've reached the point where I tailor most of my own clothes."

Mrs. Shirley Frazier is Miss Matson's Acalanes homemaking instructor.

Letters to The Editor

TEENAGERS

DEAR EDITOR:

I always read what you and your fellow writers have to say about recreation and youth and all such related matters. Sometimes I agree and sometimes I don't... but keep on exploring the various subjects.

Let's do things to help our young people really feel a part of the responsible adult world. They'll be happier, healthier and more or less stay out of trouble. LUCIE HUPP

ORINDA "CITY"

Dear Editor:

It was my pleasure to read last Friday certain statements regarding "misinformation" and "democratic process" credited to Mr. Spiegel... I agree completely as to danger of misinformation, BUT I am afraid that we might not agree as to the source of this "misinformation."

I will and do subscribe to the idea of the "democratic process," and will go one step further, as I am completely in favor of home and mother, as well as being opposed to sin, however I suspect that I am more opposed to the sins of others than to my own.

You are, I am sure, aware that my reference is to the "misinformation" and the "democratic process" of the noble and unselfish work of the committee for the incorporation of Orinda, but may I state that as a consulting engineer with 34 years of experience in this field, and for many years the manager of one of the larger and better known firms of design and consulting engineers, that I have been, on many occasions, utterly amazed at the completely irresponsible statements on the question of incorporation, which have from time to time appeared in your paper, credited to various members of the committee on incorporation.

YES, I am opposed to incorporation, but I am NOT opposed to an election to determine the will of the majority, even at the horrible thought of being governed by a state of candidates hand-picked by the Orinda Association, for I am sure that any group of people intelligent enough to select Orinda for their homes will be perfectly capable of casting a vote consistent with that intelligence, especially when you don't have some of your neighbors looking over your shoulder and telling you how to vote, AND HOW YOUR NEIGHBORS HAVE VOTED ALREADY.

I will welcome an election on the question of incorporation, for since I have talked with but TWO proponents of the plan, I am sure that it will be completely snowed under.

HERBERT F. BACON

ORINDA "CITY" VOTE

Dear Editor:

Some allegedly powerful forces are now at work trying to deny the people of Orinda the opportunity to vote on incorporation. I am prompted to wonder just why such a strenuous, frantic effort is being made to keep this vital issue from coming to a vote.

Are those opponents resorting to the protest attempt because they fear a secret ballot? Are they afraid of the full discussion of issues which an election would bring?

Is the protest method being used because it is easier to spread rumors and apply social and business pressures when there is no secret ballot, no pre-election argument on issues?

Or is this simply a means of giving greater weight to absentee landowners whose protests are important but whose votes don't count?

Do these entrenched opponents simply consider the people of Orinda incapable of deciding their own future at an election?

I wonder, too, about EBMUD and purchasers of EBMUD land. What is their role in the protest attempt? And why do the supervisors seem so anxious to allow "more time for study" when the actual effect of delay is to aid the attempt to deny Orindans a chance to vote?

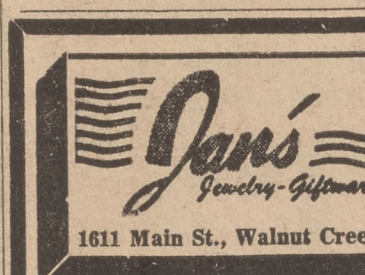

The incorporation question is an important one. The people of Orinda want an election, as shown by 3000 signatures on the incorporation petition.

Let's decide the question in the way such a vital issue should be decided: by secret ballot at an election. Regardless of its motives, the protest movement seeks only to prevent Orindans from deciding their future in the democratic way.

Dry Those Tears -- Let's Work for those Freeways

By HERMAN SILVERMAN

Have you noticed the tears dropping from the eyes of commuters and other residents as they drive along our crowded roads, highways and freeways?

Well, we all have cause for tears. The big tear-jerker was last week's announcement from the State Highway Commission as to where and how state highway funds would be used. And, brother, did Central Contra Costa County take a beating!

If you had visions of sweeping along a freeway from Lafayette to Orinda or from the Monument north or east, you can forget it for awhile. Not a red cent was allocated to these vital road deficiencies. The budget for 1958-59 does not have a cent for new road construction in this area. $1.1 million is tagged for right-of-way purchase for a future Walnut Creek-to-Danville freeway. Of the county's nearly $10 million in the budget, $6,250,000 will go for freeway construction between El Cerrito and Richmond.

Shall we be calm?

Now, if we want to be calm and rational about this, we can shrug our shoulders and say, "Oh, well, last year the state gave us the big chunk of dough for the Walnut Creek By-pass."

But let's not be calm and rational. Darn it—the unfinished links in the freeway should be connected and we should have had some of the money in this budget.

Since I am always picking on our poor board of supervisors, let me remind you that they didn't help matters out. When they listed the county's needs, the supervisors named a proposed freeway through Franklin Canyon as the No. 1 priority. There aren't even plans drafted for this freeway and it wasn't mentioned in the budget.

What was done...

Disappointed also is Elliot Hartman, president of the Diablo Highway Improvement Federation. Elliott and the Federation have done an outstanding job in past years presenting our needs to state officials. This year the federation went to Sacramento but had no help from official or unofficial groups in the county.

The other night Elliott, who is the guiding light of the Federation, told me that Santa Clara county chartered an airplane to Sacramento and really put on a show before the Highway Commission. And Santa Clara came out with a big, big pile of highway dollars.

I agree with Elliott that we must not only plug for completion of the Diablo Freeway but also new bores at the Broadway Tunnel and the freeway into Oakland and San Francisco.

Yes, there is lots of work to be done this next year. Let's dry our tears and get to work.

Letters to The Editor

WATER SUPPLY

Dear Editor:

It is heartening to know of the strong local support we have for fluoridation.

Our own Contra Costa District Dental Society is on record as strongly endorsing fluoridation of the water supply. The Alameda-Contra Costa Medical Society is likewise on record. The Northern California Unit of the American Society of Dentistry for Children is on record this year again, as it has been in the past, for wholeheartedly endorsing fluoridation of the water supply.

This, then, along with the Public Health Department of the county, puts on record every important group of MD's and DDS's on the local level as endorsing fluoridation.

The report of a congressional committee in 1952 brought immediate statements from the American Dental Association. "One ADA official called the hearings a 'pseudo-scientific investigation' devised to 'secure publicity for the chairman of the committee.'"

"A week after publication of the report, the association told its 80,000 members that the validity of a scientific discovery cannot be determined by a show of hands among members of a congressional committee." "The ADA called the report a 'minority opinion' of the full House of Representatives, and as proof, cited the fact that the House previously had approved fluoridation for the District of Columbia."

Reasoned, scientifically arrived conclusions will prevail on the issue of fluoridation. Those who stand to gain most by fluoridation are the people of the county. Millions of children who will one day come into this world assured of 60 to 65 percent less tooth decay.

RICHARD W. LELAND

ON FLUORIDATION

Dear Editor:

We are not surprised by the World Health Organization's endorsement of fluoridation. This organization, sponsored and dominated by the United States Public Health Service, money. The same individuals in the P.H.S. and American Dental Association who have been responsible for obtaining endorsements by other P.H.S. sponsored groups such as National Research Council and American Public Health Association have now used their political influence to bring about this action.

Endorsements upon which fluoridation promoters rely so heavily, when carefully analyzed, are either completely invented, have no validity or are effected by political pressure or by the bandwagon technique. In other words, they are political in nature and have no scientific value.

In the Congressional Record Senator A. L. Miller, an experienced M. D., states: "I am a former state health director and have always supported the P.H.S. in the measures they advocated... but I have been MISLED by the P.H.S. and perhaps others have been misled by statements that the A.M.A. had given their unqualified approval to this plan. I believe that they do endorse the plan in principle but it is a qualified endorsement... we ought to know whether sick children or adults with kidney disease, diabetes, thyroid disturbances, tuberculosis or any chronic disease are able to eliminate fluorides as effectively as normal people do. In testimony before our committee I could find no record of any such studies."

When both sides of the controversy have been fully presented and the public has all the facts, the experience has shown that the pro-fluoridators lose most elections by large majorities. In the recent 1957 spring elections there were 38 defeats of fluoridation.

On The Lighter Side

by INA BLIESNER

WOW! Seems as if we had just about recovered from the sensational 49er-Bear game when Detroit came upon the scene. Sunday's game at Kezar thrilled us to our toes — absolutely electrifying! I was already hoarse from Friday night. Hadn't seen a High School game for years. We took our youngsters to see Amador High (Pleasanton) play John Swett (Crockett). Talk about SPIRIT! they really go all out.

The John Heafys of Lafayette have returned from two "dreamy" weeks at Laguna Beach. Marion and John were accompanied by son, Michael, and their mothers, Mrs. John Heafy, Sr. and Mrs. David Twomey. They stayed at beautiful "Capri Laguna" and discovered many wonderful places for dining.

The Class of '41 of St. Mary's College High School in Berkeley held a stag reunion at "Pelluso's" in Oakland the other night. Helping to make the evening a memorable one were these classmates from this area — Leo Kienny, John Brogan, Jerry Meder, Joe Vitt, and Al Weber.

Tinsel Time is Coming . . . and SOON

Already it's time to be planning to go to the wonderful, annual Towhee Exhibit Tea — named "Tinsel Time." December 3 the ballroom at Diablo Country Club will be radiant, again, with the MOST beautiful Christmas tree displays. (Heard via a very dependable grapevine that exhibits are closed now — there will be a total of 28.

In a holiday mood the girls, wearing their pert red organdie aprons, will be selling gay merchandise. It has become traditional for groups to gather together for luncheons here and there and then trek to Diablo to enjoy all of the features — especially that fragrant persimmon pudding (plus rich coffee) which has become symbolic of this particular bazaar.

THE ALBERT LAVENS and their sons, Rickie and David, and the Beverly Wilders and son, Doug, made a week-end trip to Fresno to attend the Folk Dance Festival being held there. As a matter of fact — these energetic people seldom miss a Festival. They report that Fresno's is a particularly interesting and "fun" one. It is unique in that it features an International Food Festival. The Lavens and the Wilders stayed at the beautiful new "Sahara Motel." This is really 'getting around'!

The Addison Thompsons are certainly the busy ones — and have been for months. During the summer they languished in the islands having swopped their lovely Spanish type home with friends who wanted to "summer" in the States. More recently the Thompsons toured in Alaska, having returned just in time to play hosts when the Orinda party was held in their spacious gardens.

MRS. WILLIAM LANG has just returned from a week's visit in Los Angeles. Seems that her daughter is starting a brand new career in the hotel business in the southland.

Don't know of any dances more enjoyed than the Diablo Cotillions. Seems that most everyone loves to dress up and "do it up" and these occasions furnish the perfect opportunity. These couples, from the Danville area, are always in attendance: the R. A. Armstrongs, Roberts Burgesses, Sam Abbotts, E. Connors, M. Griffiths, C. H. Gilligs, Hugu Gordons, and Dave Humphreys. Preceding the last Cotillion, pre-dance parties were held by the Burgesses and the Abbotts.

Same old thing . . . golf widows

On a grey, drizzly day last week — a group of friends gathered together for a cozy afternoon at the Pleasanton Hotel. It was one of those perfect days for conversation (and food!) In the mood were: Pat White, Jacques Lehr, Georginne Malloy, Thelma Sweet, Dorothy Lundblad, Jackie Fain and Bobby (who else?) McGuire — (oh yes, and me.)

Staying on for dinner (cause our husbands were golfing at Castlewood) were Pat White and Dorothy Lundblad. We happily joined friends there in celebrating two birthdays.

At the Ken Richardson home in Diablo, the Mary Doyle members and their husbands had their second pot-luck party of the season. Seems that the husbands enjoyed the first one just as much as the gals. It was a fine opportunity for all of the new and regular members to get better acquainted.

LATE VACATIONS: Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Gould and family had a lovely one at Iverness on Tomales Bay. Mrs. Horace Pratt and her two young daughters, Karen and Cheri, have been visiting the T. Ashworths in Merced.

During their stay there they spent a day of picnicking and fun at Yosemite Lake (must be gorgeous this time of year). Following their return to Concord — the entire family packed up again and took off for Yosemite National Park where they stayed for several days. This was followed by a trip to Reno (children-less, that is).

It's kind of hard to ski, though

Nada Miller (popular Speech Therapist) is back from her vacation — having had a "super" time. An enthusiastic skier, she had been promised snow at Mt. Hood — but, no such luck. She enjoyed camping at Lassen National Park and then returned to such "city" entertainments as attending "Annie Get Your Gun" and "Around the World in Eighty Days."

When the Seabury Club of the Episcopalian Church has its monthly meeting — it goes all out with dinner, theme etc. Friday night about forty couples will gather at the home of Lillian and Bill Palmer in Walnut Creek. For each "meeting" there are 10 hostesses.

This will be a Hawaiian night and the guests will enjoy (seated in the proper Luau style) such delicacies as tuna and bean sprout salad, fresh fruit salad, sweet and sour spare ribs, fried rice, and ice cream balls rolled in coconut chips. YUM!

The O-DA-KI-NAH Camp Fire Girls entertained Girl Scout Troop 257 at a Halloween costume party at Nancy Nagy's home in Lafayette October 25. Hobos, geisha girls, gypsies and flappers all had a hilarious time pinning the bone on the skeleton, "feeding the neighbor" in a relay, chewing the string to reach a piece of candy and being judged in their costumes.

During the Grand March, Joan Giesbrecht won the prize for the prettiest costume. Nancy Hicks for the most original. Kay Walgren and Susan Pennington for the funniest.

The decorations, games and refreshments were all planned and made by the Camp Fire Girl hostesses, who were Carole Lee Bishop, Joan Giesbrecht, Jeanne Greene, Marjorie Hewitt, Fred-dei Lane, Marica Mortensen, Nancy Nagy, Sheryl Slominski and Meg Trofey.

Mozart Opera To Be Presented At St. Mary's

Mozart's opera "Abduction from the Seraglio" will be presented in a free public performance at St. Mary's College Wednesday evening as part of the student body-faculty cultural series for the year.

The opera, performed in English, is presented by the Company of the Golden Hind. Their "Abduction" has played for six weeks to capacity audiences at the Golden Hind Playbox in Berkeley, and for four weeks to filled houses in San Francisco.

"Abduction" is one of the most lavish of the 18th Century comedies and includes one of the most taxing soprano parts found in any opera, according to Golden Hind director Rachmael ben Avram.

Certain time for the performance is 8:15 p.m. in Oliver Hall on the St. Mary's Campus. The public is invited.

Preliminary arrangements for the presentation were made by Brother S. Robert, F.S.C., professor of world classics; Benjamin Frankel, assistant professor of history, and Brother Kyran, F.S.C., instructor in art, who represent the faculty committee on lectures, music and art.

Sigma Kappa Mothers Will Meet Tuesday

Mrs. R. H. C. Proffitt, president of the Sigma Kappa Mothers Club, announces that on Tuesday the group will have luncheon with their daughters at the chapter house in Berkeley at noon.

Girls' Play Day Held In Orinda

Realizing that, due to the growth of Orinda, many students never meet before reaching intermediate school, the Orinda Union School District Recreation Department, under the supervision of Frank Isola, is conducting a "get acquainted program" for all the girls in the school district.

On October 29 the first in a series of play days was held at Pine Grove School at 4 p.m. Forty sixth grade girls from Del Rey, Orinda, Pine Grove and Sleepy Hollow Schools played kickball, and 60 seventh and 8th grade girls took part in softball games.

The kickball teams were made up of players from each school, and every game was limited to 15 minutes. Ten points were given for a winning game and five for a tie. The winning team scored a total of 30 points, with the other three teams each receiving 10 points.

The next play day will be held sometime in December on a date to be announced later. It is tentatively planned that the participants at that time will be fifth and sixth grade girls.

Local PEO's Will Meet on Thursday

There will be a meeting of unaffiliated P.E.O.'s Thursday at 8 p.m. at the home of Evelyn Turner, 2713 Argyle Avenue, Concord. P.E.O.'s from Orinda, Walnut Creek, Alamo, Pleasant Hill and Concord are invited to attend.

Dollies Inc. PH AAUW Sets up Shop Sets Meet

For the third year there is a "Jolly Santa's Workshop" in the home of Mrs. Mae Watkins on Orchard Road in Lafayette. Busy of the ladies soon will be swapping arms, stuffing bodies, repairing dolls.

There will be washing, ironing, mending and sewing of doll clothes. Soon neat rows of nun, nurse, gypsy, red cross and baby dolls will line the shelves. These along with other toys and food on Christmas Eve by the Christmas Bureau of Mount Diablo Valley.

Mrs. Watkins founded this voluntary group in 1955. They call themselves "Dollies Inc."

"It all began," she said "when I was shopping in Danville and happened to stop in at a rummage sale. There was a little Mexican-American mother in the store with her young daughter. The child was cradling a broken, half-clothed doll in her arms. She was delighted with her new found treasure."

"I thought to myself, every child is entitled to a clean doll with pretty clothes. A doll is different from any other toy. To a child a doll is a person. It was that day I decided that I could help bring happiness to these children."

Mrs. Watkins lived in a remote area of North Dakota as a child. During the long winter days, she and her brother spent many happy hours sewing, knitting and crocheting for amusement. She and her husband have lived in Lafayette for 20 years. They have no children of their own.

She has found much pleasure in bringing joy to children at Christmas.

She has found others like herself who have time and talent to help in her projects. Last year she and her helpers repaired 60 dolls.

This year she hopes that there will be more dolls and more helpers. Those interested in giving their time may call Mrs. Mae Watkins or the Volunteer Bureau in Walnut Creek.

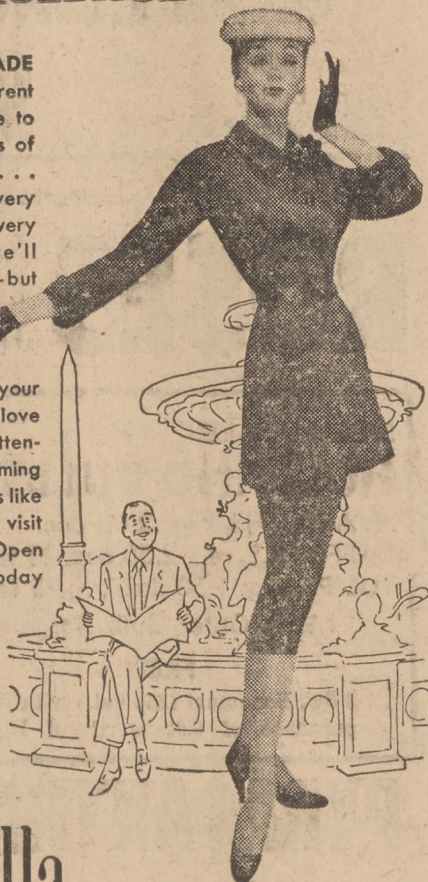

Dollies Inc. is seeking new scraps of taffeta and flannel and small beads. This material, as well as dolls, wheel goods, other toys and books in good condition (no stuffed animals) will be accepted until December 1 at the following places:

Lafayette Fire Station, Moraga Road, Lafayette; Moraga Fire Station, Rheem Boulevard, Moraga; Saranap Fire Station, Boulevard Way, Saranap; Danville Fire Station, Hartz Avenue, Danville; American Red Cross, 1395 Civic Drive, Walnut Creek.

Those seeking pickup service may call Mrs. Philip Angell of Lafayette.

Homework Pays Off Says Realtor

Home work — particularly the kind that deals with bookkeeping arithmetic may pay off for the head of the family as well as children attending school, according to J. H. Carter, president of the Contra Costa County Real Estate Board.

The board is affiliated with the National Association of Real Estate Boards whose members are entitled to call themselves Realtors.

Many home owners, who do not realize that many expenses in connection with their homes legitimately may be deducted from federal income tax returns provided they keep simple records, are losing money they might save, Carter explained.

Probably one of the most important of the deductions available to home owners are those which may be made in connection with residential losses sustained as the result of such casualties as fire, storm, hurricane, or flood, he said. Casualty deductions may be made for damage to trees, shrubbery, or other attributes of the property as well as damage to the house itself.

Carter pointed out, however, that such deductions are limited to the lesser of two amounts — the difference between the value of the property before and after the casualty, or the income tax basis of the property to the individual at the time of the casualty. In either event, the deduction is reduced by any insurance that is recovered.

Camellia Reticulata -- It Deserves More Attention

By THE GARDENER

THE BEAUTIES of camellia japonica have been praised so long and so loudly by California gardeners that the recent successful introduction of camellia reticulata varieties has not received the attention such a wonderful gardening event deserves.

Here is a race of camellias possessing many of the excellent qualities of the more famed species, plus large-sized flowers which undergo amazing color transformation in development.

It was not until 1952 that the reticulata species was available to the California home gardener in quantity. Preceding the introduction were many years of sleuthing and testing by botanists, reports the California Association of Nurserymen.

RETICULATAS originated in Yunnan Province, China. In 1820 the first examples were brought to the Western world, but these were sterile varieties, not suitable for development.

Other examples were being raised behind temple walls and it took much intrigue to arrange for their release to the West. In 1948, following a long exchange of letters between an American, Dr. Walter E. Lammert, head of Descanso Research Division, and two Chinese botanists, a delivery of 20 varieties was sent to California via air freight.

Fifteen of the 20 varieties were marketed in California in 1952, after four years of testing by California research botanists.

DURING THE YEARS since 1952 many amateur gardeners have raised reticulatas successfully.

In one respect the raising of the new species is still adventurous. Although the shrub is reliable, meaning it will thrive with the minimum care required all camellias, botanists are still learning about the unique beauties of this Chinese import.

An example of the amazing flower transformation previously mentioned is Purple Gown, one of the named varieties, which opens deep purple-red with pin stripes of white. Then, as each petal enlarges, the color changes to wine-red, retaining the minute pin stripes.

BUDDHA, the 1958 All-America Camellia Selection, changes in form rather than in color.

Each petal of the unusually large single blossoms of phlox pink, emphasized with contrasting veins of rose, gradually increases in size and becomes more arched inward and curved. At maturity the flowers range from 4 1/2 to 6 1/2 inches in diameter.

CHECK SPARE

It's a good idea to check the spare tire of your automobile occasionally. Air pressure in the spare may not be properly inflated for immediate use if you should have a flat tire.

Concert Series Presents Young Lyric Soprano

Ewan Harbrecht, young California-born lyric soprano, opened the current series of concerts for the Acalanes Community Concert series last night at Acalanes High School.

Miss Harbrecht spent the latter part of this past summer touring Europe as the soloist with the Salt Lake City Tabernacle Choir. Just before the tour she held a recital in Salt Lake City. Last year she made her European concert debut in Milan.

At the age of 12 Miss Harbrecht gave 52 recitals of dramatic recitations, singing and playing the violin. The following year she made 56 performances. She has studied several musical instruments, ballet, voice and drama.

She has sung many roles on radio and T.V. and has appeared as soloist in the Redlands California Bowl. She won a scholarship to study at the Berkshire Music Festival in Tanglewood, Mass. and there worked under the direction of the famous Dr. Serge Koussevitzky.

Miss Harbrecht replaced Barbara Gibson, soprano, originally scheduled to appear, but forced to cancel her tour on account of ill health.

Barden Attains Rank of Ensign

Samuel Bradbard, President of Board of Directors, Mt. Diablo Therapy Center, Pleasant Hill and the Center's Administrator, Mrs. Juanita Benoy, have been invited to attend Governor Knight's conference on the Rehabilitation of Physically Handicapped Adults.

The conference will be held Tuesday through Thursday in the State Capitol, Sacramento. Henry Kessler, M.D., Director, Kessler Institute of Rehabilitation, New Jersey, will deliver the keynote address. Speaking at the closing session will be Miss Mary Switzer, Director, Office of Vocational Rehabilitation, U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

Christian Science

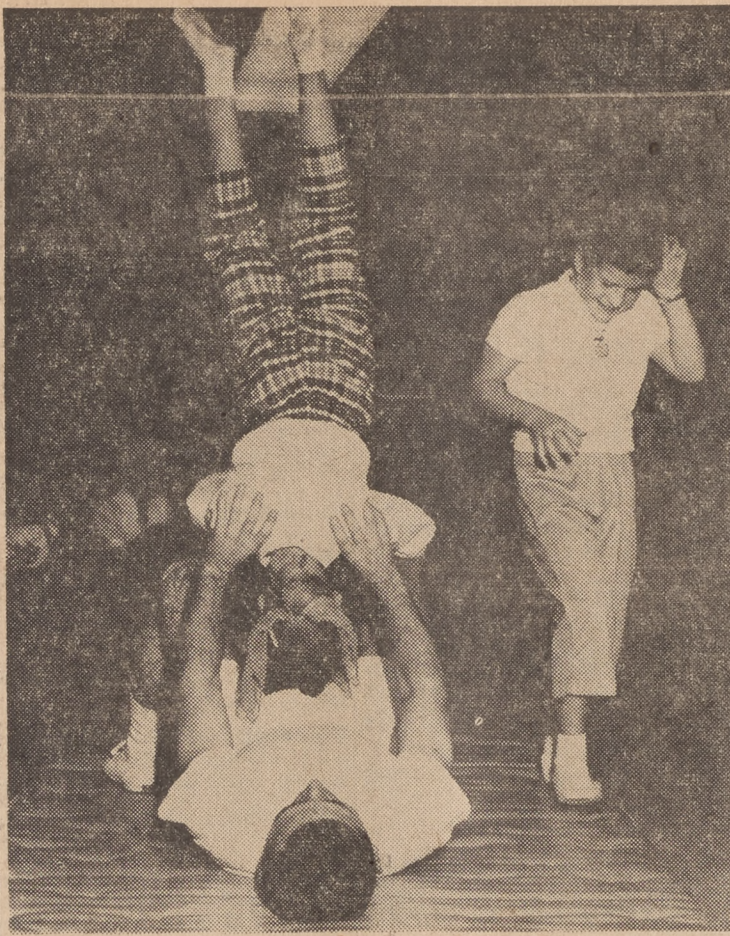

Man's perfect, sinless nature as the spiritual child of God will be emphasized in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Adam and Fallen Man" at Christian Science services Sunday.

Christian Science churches in this area are located at 22 Orinda Highway, Orinda, and 1347 Locust Street, Walnut Creek. The Christian Science Society of Pleasant Hill meets at the Hillcrest Congregational Church on Gregory Lane.

Revering the Scriptural readings is the following passage to be read from Genesis (1:27): "So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him: male and female created he them."

A correlative passage which refers to this record of creation will be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy (516:27-29): "To emphasize this momentous thought, it is repeated that God made man in His own image; to reflect the divine Spirit."

The Golden Text is from Psalms (112:4): "Unto the upright there riseth light in the darkness."

PLENTY OF ACTION was evident at the Children's Halloween Party held at the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center last weekend. A real lift is given Toni Fasanaro by Elmer Pfaffenberger. Sideline antics are provided by Lynn Kellner.

Mt. Diablo PTA Will Observe Education Week

Members of the Mount Diablo Council of Parents Teachers Association will discuss "School Education" at their meeting Tuesday noon in the Walnut Creek Recreation Building.

The topic is appropriate to American Education Week which begins Sunday. The meeting will begin with a buzz session at 12:15. A business session and program will follow.

Mrs. Robert Adams, first vice president of the 32nd District will speak on "Teacher Recruitment" and tell "why we have a teacher shortage."

"Are scholarships large enough to see the students thru college?" and "How important is salary in obtaining teachers?" will be answered by her.

Robert Bowers, teacher at Buena Vista, Walnut Creek, will talk on the integrated braille system for the blind that is being introduced in Contra Costa schools for the first time.

The National Congress of PTA is one of the four sponsoring organizations of American Education Week, during which the schools of America invite parents and other interested persons to observe them in operation.

It affords the parents an opportunity to review and evaluate the purposes and achievements of their schools, to consider the educational problems and aims and to formulate plans of action in strengthening the schools so they serve the needs of the individual, the community and the nation with ever increasing effectiveness.

The buzz session will feature "Ways and Means" and will council all members on useful information to take back to their units. Hostess units for the coffee hour will be Lafayette Elementary, Vallejo and Montecito.
